

REFRESHMENTS DURING BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

It shall be the policy of the Board of Education of the Creighton Community School District to provide refreshments such as coffee, tea, donuts, cookies, and other such refreshments, from time to time, to the school district employees, board members, advisory committee members, and others involved with or conducting business or activities on behalf of the Creighton Community School District. Under no circumstances will any school district money be spent for alcoholic beverages.

The board finds that board members and participation is enhanced by such amenities as are provided for by this policy. The board further finds that relationships with staff members and the members and administration are facilitated and rendered more efficient due to the provisions referred to in this policy. The board further finds that attendance at meetings of the advisory committee of the Creighton Community School district, which committees are implied by statute and required by accreditation regulations, is enhanced and assists the school district in formulating policy and services. The board further finds that the provision of such amenities does not constitute compensation to members of the board.
