

Paraprofessional

The board may employ paraprofessionals or other instructional support personnel to assist certificated personnel in nonteaching duties, including, but not limited to:

- managing and maintaining records, materials and equipment;
- attending to the physical needs of children; and
- performing other limited services to support teaching duties when such duties are determined and directed by the teacher.

Paraprofessionals who hold a teaching certificate shall be compensated at the rate of pay established for their position as a paraprofessional. It shall be the responsibility of the principal and/or superintendent to supervise paraprofessionals.
